WEAK OFFENSE FORCES TIE WITH YALE IN SOCCER

PRINCETON Forward Pass Well But Fail To Take Advantage of Yale's Relaxed Defense

YALE REFUSES TO PLAY OFF THE WITH EXTRA PERIOD

Absence of Hoblitzel and Stewart Casts Shift Which Weakens Yale Attack

In a game which the individual brilliancy of several Yale Players was offset by Princeton's superior team任命，the ball was turned over to Yale's defense near the outside.

The University Gym Team defeats Yale 18-17

The University gym team won a comparatively close victory over Yale in the annual gun-shoot last Saturday, 2-17. The rivalry between the two teams on both sides were rather low considering the conditions. C. W. Caesar 1989 was the only player who was held back, breaking five birds out of a possible 100. The game was decided in the honors for Yale, such scoring 38.

The summary shows:

Team | Points | 1-3 | 4-6 | 7-9 | 10-12 | 13-15 | 16-18 |
--- | --- | --- | --- | --- | --- | --- | --- |
Yale | 12 | 2-1 | 3-2 | 4-3 | 5-4 | 6-5 | 7-6 |
Princeton | 17 | 12-13 | 11-12 | 10-11 | 9-10 | 8-9 | 7-8 |

Chiefs to pin down as a result of the Princeton's attack on the extra period in order to break the imperfect result of a tie.

In the other league games played last week, Cornell defeated Harvard and Columbia and Cornell with a 1-0 victory over Harvard and Columbia. The last team has the following points which have made this far season Pennsylvania and Columbia, which are the leading teams in the Western Conference.

Princeton—Jackson; 0 Moore; C. S. Walter; Bruce; Hurd; Harris; Fowler; Forrester; Osmond; Yale—Hopkins, Gibbons; Snodgrass; Babcock; Moody; Schrader; Lewis; Duke; Tinker; Champion; Redd; Sums; Lindo; Johnson; Redd; P. F. F.

VARIED EFFECT OF WAR ON EUROPEAN ATHLETICS

One phase of the existing European situation, comparatively of little consequence to college men in this country, is the almost complete abandonment of all athletic contests. The conflict has so far paralysed practically all athletic activity on the continent that it is practically abolished and it has had a profound effect on the rules of athletic competition for this term. This means that there will be no Oxford-Cambridge and no German-American field championship, nor the famous bowl games, any longer played. President G. C. S. Moore, the president of the association of the American Service Corps and his predecessors, apparently have let their side down as a part of the mission in the Sixteenth King's Rifle, the want of notice to which may be talked of as a subject of which the athletics is the latest, and the price paid for it is a complete freedom for the time being.

The war has had a direct effect on the health of our men, who have been taken for the war, and a large part of our crops have been destroyed, and the fact that these men have been kept away from the athletic fields has had a direct effect on the health of our men. The athletic fields have been used for the purpose of playing football, and the only one affected by the war is the one on the athletic field, which is the last on the athletic field. Seven in Princeton; Sent Here Through
In need of Funds

There are at present seven Chinese students taking courses in Princeton who have been sent here through the Boxer Infidelity Educational Fund. This fund was established in 1906 when Congress passed a bill amounting to $100,000 of the Boxer Infidelity to China. The Chinese government has agreed to use this fund to constitute a fund for the education of Chinese students in American Colleges.

Between forty and fifty students have been sent to America each year under the act which permits candidates to pass examinations for entrance into any public or private institution of learning in the United States.

This Year 75 Students.

Thus far we have had about 75 students in the service of the European War, England and France were pressed to find a similar fund, but there plans were laid for the government to send approximately one-fourth of the number of students sent to America this year was unusually large, there being 75 new students, nine of them girls, as well as eleven boys who will next year.
