MME. CALVE TO BE HEARD IN RECITAL TO-NIGHT

In Alexander Hall at 8:35—Has Three Assisting Artists—On The Program

RECEIPTS TO BE DONATED TO WAR RELIEF COMMITTEE

Reserved Seats on Sale at Brin's at $1.00—Student Admission Fifty Cents.

One of the season's most interesting concerts will be given in Alexander Hall at 8:35 this evening when Madame Calve and her opens to the American public the first of her series of concerts, which will be regular from now on. The concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

This concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

Mme. Calve Singing "La Marseillaise"

One of the season's most interesting concerts will be given in Alexander Hall at 8:35 this evening when Madame Calve and her opens to the American public the first of her series of concerts, which will be regular from now on. The concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

This concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

Mme. Calve Singing "La Marseillaise"

One of the season's most interesting concerts will be given in Alexander Hall at 8:35 this evening when Madame Calve and her opens to the American public the first of her series of concerts, which will be regular from now on. The concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

This concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

Mme. Calve Singing "La Marseillaise"

One of the season's most interesting concerts will be given in Alexander Hall at 8:35 this evening when Madame Calve and her opens to the American public the first of her series of concerts, which will be regular from now on. The concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

This concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

Mme. Calve Singing "La Marseillaise"

One of the season's most interesting concerts will be given in Alexander Hall at 8:35 this evening when Madame Calve and her opens to the American public the first of her series of concerts, which will be regular from now on. The concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

This concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

Mme. Calve Singing "La Marseillaise"

One of the season's most interesting concerts will be given in Alexander Hall at 8:35 this evening when Madame Calve and her opens to the American public the first of her series of concerts, which will be regular from now on. The concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.

This concert promises to be a triumph, as Madame Calve, the opening artist, has never been more beautiful or more perfect in her voice, and the personal quality of the artist makes her no less notable for her art than for her grace and charming beauty. Madame Calve has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers since the early days of Patti, and her voice is held in highest esteem by all who have heard her. The concert will be given in Alexander Hall, and the admission price will be fifty cents.
THE DAILY PRINCETONIAN

FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1909

Princetonian

in

the us

a

the

we

Games.

colleges

coffee.

words;

important

mid-years.

before

not

ff/.f

be

the

the

the

suit

using

Philadelphia

S.

series

hours

game

H.

p.

Press

make

Chairman

a.

strengthen

men

moulder,

with

speaking

who

January

debate.

always

ambulances

Day

has

essay,

to

Princeton

of

Town,

hours:

with

fact,

for

the

The

in

be

the

meet

all

expression,

with

classes

fluency

with

H.

IN

Company,

—

to

E.

was

Treasurer

your writing

the

meet

January

saddening

speech

alertness

Manager

will

Talley

act

of

it.

days

extemporaneous

of

is

debate.

Watches,

Piince-

win

Rich,

New

points.

THE

played

in

Marquand

things

in

Y>

even

later

undergraduate

it

decided

3

in

other

on

exercise

Only

C.

as

num-

all

Lloyd-Smith

Sat.

language;

Treasurer's

by

Wheat

the

of

get

inquiries

and

the

tied

|

Song

is

age

his

thor-

Choir

Vice-President

average

publication

all

and

will

be

S

chair

of

H.

McElroy.

English.

is

seems

section

aid

fire-wood

always

two

Manager,

Mail

McElroy

one.

Trophies

next

with

Eight

their

a

year

frequently

games

can

Univer-

in

are.

of

State

Another

now

papers

are

the

held

the

school

the

in

the

are

the

and

are

the

are

the

is

is

with

the

are

with

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are

the

are Clothing
Haberdashery
Headwear

TRIANGULAR RELAY RACE TO BE HELD IN LOUISVILLE Princeton, Michigan, and Penn to Meet on Relay Team Formidable.

According to an announcement made in Philadelphia by the Manager of the Pennsylvania track team, Princeton's one-mile relay quartet will meet Penn twice during the indoor season. Cornell, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Princeton, and Yale are entered in the Meadowbrook Club relay meet to be held Wednesday, March 11. One week later, the very

SWEATERS
For every Form of Athletic Sports Games and Exercises

WINNING OF FINAL EVENT DECIDES SWIMMING MEET

(Omitted from first page.)
Swimming—Wian-Oster,

PENN Ms. 200-yard Swim—

ROYAL ORCHARID ACTURALITY
The Friedman Declaration contest was won last night by C. Seinkiewicz, who delivered an original composition entitled "Patriotism and Nationality."
The second place was awarded to Walter L. Arvo, whose composition was "Garrison's The Death of Brown."

PENN BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The longest and hardest baseball schedule in the history of the college has been arranged for the University team this year.

SEINKEWICZ WINS 1595 SWEETWATER ACTUALITY
The Friedman Declaration contest was won last night by C. Seinkiewicz, who delivered an original composition entitled "Patriotism and Nationality."
The second place was awarded to Walter L. Arvo, whose composition was "Garrison's The Death of Brown."

PENN BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The longest and hardest baseball schedule in the history of the college has been arranged for the University team this year.

SEINKEWICZ WINS 1595 SWEETWATER ACTUALITY
The Friedman Declaration contest was won last night by C. Seinkiewicz, who delivered an original composition entitled "Patriotism and Nationality."
The second place was awarded to Walter L. Arvo, whose composition was "Garrison's The Death of Brown."

PENN BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The longest and hardest baseball schedule in the history of the college has been arranged for the University team this year.

SEINKEWICZ WINS 1595 SWEETWATER ACTUALITY
The Friedman Declaration contest was won last night by C. Seinkiewicz, who delivered an original composition entitled "Patriotism and Nationality."
The second place was awarded to Walter L. Arvo, whose composition was "Garrison's The Death of Brown."

PENN BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The longest and hardest baseball schedule in the history of the college has been arranged for the University team this year.

SEINKEWICZ WINS 1595 SWEETWATER ACTUALITY
The Friedman Declaration contest was won last night by C. Seinkiewicz, who delivered an original composition entitled "Patriotism and Nationality."
The second place was awarded to Walter L. Arvo, whose composition was "Garrison's The Death of Brown."

PENN BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The longest and hardest baseball schedule in the history of the college has been arranged for the University team this year.